INSTRUCTIONS

Soften cream cheese and butter. Mix cake mix, cream cheese, butter, egg, and vanilla together until butter and cream cheese are fully incorporated. Cookie dough will be quite thick and sticky. Scoop 1.5 tablespoons of dough (size of a medium cookie scoop) and roll into balls. Roll balls in powdered sugar and place on a lightly greased cookie sheet. Bake 9-10 minutes until cookies are just puffed and cracked but still very soft. Cool completely before glazing or serving.

For glaze: melt 2 tablespoons butter in a small saucepan, then turn off heat. Whisk in powdered sugar, vanilla, and 2 tablespoons milk (if piping on glaze) or 3 tablespoons milk (if dunking cookies to glaze entire tops).
